

STUDENT'S SATISFACTION SURVEY REPORT

Student is the core of any education process. Aqsa Women's Degree College give emphasis on learner centered education. To enhance its educational practices we conduct student's satisfaction survey to enable us to find out areas of improvement. As usual online responses were collected and college zeroed on following results.

Students are satisfied with teaching and learning process in fact they really appreciate the way teachers clarify their doubts.

Laboratory facilities are sufficient

Students were provided with adequate Medical facilities.

Students love sports organize in the college.

The major complain of the students is regarding canteen. And college is trying to improve canteen facilities by outsourcing it another service provider.

Another complain is regarding extra-curricular activities. College has organized extra-curricular activities online due to pandemic and in next academic year college is looking forward to enhance quality and quantity of its extra-curricular activities.

Students are fairly content with examination process.

Students feel cleanliness and security of the college is at par.

The evaluation process in the college is very positive and students value it.

Most of the students are happily recommend the college to future aspirants.

The overall rating of the college was 3.5 out of 5 i.e. 70%.

The college is trying to improve its overall performance with the help of this survey.

